

We'll be getting that to you at the beginning of the week, as I indicated. Hopefully, you have...that gives you a little bit of an idea of what we'll be attempting to do during the next few days. If you have any questions, I would be happy to respond to those individually. Thank you for the time.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Withem. A couple of announcements. The Capitol Mural Commission invites you all out into the rotunda to look at the eight mural sketches which were recently approved for installation. You should have all received a letter on that regard, but Bob Ripley will also be in the rotunda to talk with you or answer any questions that you might have. In addition, I would like to remind you of the Nebraska GIS Fair which is scheduled for this afternoon in Rooms 1113, 1126 and 1200 in the State Capitol Building here to talk to you about the Nebraska GIS and what they are doing and their interim planning report to the Legislature. Senator Byars announces the following guests are here in the Legislature. Three classes of Government students from Beatrice High School are in the south balcony. Would they please stand and be recognized. Mr. Clerk, new bills.

CLERK: Madam President, new bills. (Read LBs 913-920 for the first time by title. See pages 189-91 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The body stands at ease.
